PRB--

The paperback edition of my book will be coming out in early May, and the publisher has asked for any changes by early January.

Attached are two documents for you to review.

--The first is a draft of an introduction to the paperback version. You will need to review the entire document,

(b)(5)

--The second is a track-change version of the hardcover edition. The only additional material is highlighted in red.

Thank you.

Michael
